Article 6451:

It is illegal to display:

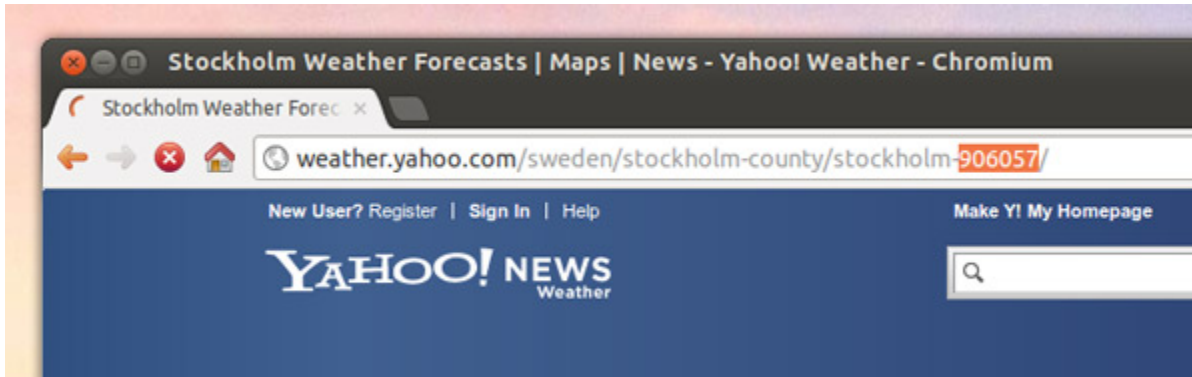

“in public in uniform, insignia or emblem reminiscent of uniforms, badges or emblems which were either worn or displayed by members of an organization declared criminal under Article 9 of the Statute of the International Military Tribunal annexed to the agreement London, 8 August 1945, or by a person convicted by a French or international court of a crime or crimes against humanity.”

“Governments of the Industrial World,
you weary giants of flesh and steel, I come from Cyberspace, the new home of Mind. On behalf of the future,
I ask you of the past to leave us alone. You are not welcome among us. You have no sovereignty where we gather.”
- John Perry Barlow
